

No 132

WHEREAS the City Council of the City of Columbus maintains an operating procedures handbook, and;

WHEREAS recent events at Council meetings have demonstrated that those procedures have not been followed, and;

WHEREAS the public expects its duly elected officials to conduct the affairs of the City of Columbus in ;an orderly and logical manner,

THEREFORE henceforth on all matters of public business discussed by the Council, and referred to a Committee of the Council, no action shall be taken by the Council until a written committee report, signed by all attending committee members, if filed with the City Clerk.
