

RESOLUTION NO. 190

HONORING THE HUMANITARIAN DEEDS OF
MIKE HELMS, RON REYNOLDS AND ROBERT BURTON

WHEREAS, in today's society it is very rare for anyone to offer to do a good deed for his fellow man; and

WHEREAS, it is even rarer, indeed practically never occurs, when total strangers come to the rescue of another in distress to save that person's life; and

WHEREAS, such a noble deed occurred in Columbus, Kansas on October 24, 1994, when Mike Helms, Ron Reynolds and Robert Burton came to the aid of John Partin of Joplin, Missouri who suffered a heart attack while in his vehicle at the corner of Pennsylvania and Maple Streets in the City of Columbus, Kansas; and

WHEREAS, it is with the utmost candor and sincerity that the Governing Body of the City of Columbus, Kansas presents this Resolution of Appreciation and Recognition to these fine individuals for their noble efforts in saving the life of John Partin.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that Mike Helms, Ron Reynolds and Robert Burton are hereby recognized and praised for their noble deeds and unselfish conduct in saving the life of John Partin.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the City Clerk of Columbus, Kansas, is hereby directed to formally file this instrument in the record books of the City of Columbus, Kansas and transmit copies hereof to John Partin, Mike Helms, Ron Reynolds and Robert Burton.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 5th day of December, 1994.

W. E. Schaiff - Mayor
