

RESOLUTION # 208

RESOLUTION OF ENCOURAGEMENT

WHEREAS, the community of Coumbus has striven to excel in presenting itself as a quality place to live and shop, and

WHEREAS, the Columbus Community Foundation has made great strides in encouraging present and former citizens to reinvest in their hometown by making various contributions, and

WHEREAS, one graduate of Columbus High School, T. Michael Stephens, has offered to exercise his artistic talents in our community by bringing back to life certain turn-of-the-century buildings, and our modernistic park pavilion, and

WHEREAS, this artistic contribution has involved local people like Ron Thomas, Don Amos, Larry Ferrell, and John Ferrier, plus a great deal of local vendor products, and

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Columbus, Kansas expresses its appreciation to those persons owning properties in Columbus who are, or already have, rehabilitated said properties to the benefit of our fine community.

W.E. Schaiff, Mayor
